

CANAV Books

Here is CANAV Book's grand new Summer 2024 list of mainly aviation titles. Most are "like new" copies. Many rare items such as some Avro Canada books with autographs of such greats as Jan Zurakowski and James C. Floyd. There's an original 1917 treatise by the Red Baron himself and many other rare titles for the aviation readers, collector and bibliophile. Please let me know if you see anything that you like for yourself, for some aviation-minded friend, modeller, artist, aviation retiree, etc.

Also ... if you get a chance, have a look at the new items on the CANAV blog www.canavbooks.wordpress.com Included is new coverage of aviation at the Lakehead/Thunder Bay, the great Times-Colonist annual book sale, and what's going on with the last two Martin Mars.

Shipping: For books marked "A" for shipping, add $16.00, for "B" $14.50. Two or more books CANAV's flat rate is $24.00.

[] 125 Years of Canadian Aeronautics: A Chronology 1840-1965 K.M. Molson, George Fuller and John Griffin. Famous 1983 CAHS publication. As it says ... massive amount of info. 328pages, hardcover, photos galore, index. Essential sourcebook. Like new copy. $35.00 A

[] Canada's Flying Heritage 1981 softcover ed'n of this 1954 Frank Ellis classic. Essential for any Canadian aviation library, covers all the early eras in readable detail. From early 1900s through WWI, the booming interwar years, WWII and postwar eras. Key sourcebook. 398pp, sc, lf, photos, app'x, index. New copy $14.00 A

[] Canadian Airmen and the First World War, Vol.I DHist. In a class of its own. Indispensable source book! 770 pp, hc, 200 photos, maps, foldouts. Like new copy. $40.00 A

[] Creation of a National Air Force, Vol.2 DHist. Douglas. Greenhous, et al. Vol.II of this great triumvirate of RCAF history books. Covers the interwar years and the wartime homefront including the U-boat war. Fine copy. 796 pp, hc, 200 photos, maps, foldouts. 40.00 A

[] Crucible of War: Official History of the RCAF, Vol. III DHist. Essential for any serious RCAF reader. 1096 pages of WWII RCAF overseas. How it all worked, fighters, bombers, transports, coastal, etc. Photos, app'x, index. Like new copy. Miss this series at your peril. 1020 pages, photos, maps, foldouts. $40.00 A

[] Aerodrome of Democracy: Canada and the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan 1939-1945 Fred Hatch's superb 1983 study. None is any better in outlining the big picture. For the avid collector and serious reader. 222pp, sc, photos, charts, app'x, index. Good copy. $15.00 B

[] The Courage of the Early Morning: The Story of Billy Bishop (1st ed'n 1965) The great one's son, Arthur, tells the story. A controversial history that has been challenged over the years, yet holds its ground. Portrays life "over the front" as well as you'll read anywhere. 210pp, hc, photos, app'x, index. $18.50 B

[] Lancaster FM159 and the Nanton Lancaster Society Air Museum Dave Birrell's solid history of this now-famous RCAF Lancaster. Starts with a good general history of "the Lanc" at war, then a good history of FM159 at war (which amounted to nothing, since it reached the UK too late to see action). Next, its role postwar esp. in maritime reconnaissance with 407 Sqn at Comox, then the great story of how a farmer bought it for scrap value and towed it to his property in Nanton. Eventually, FM159 was salvaged and restored. Today its four great Merlin engines sometimes are run up by the museum. Excellent 48-page, cerlox-bound item $18 all-in

[] The Necessary War: Canadians Fighting the Second World War 1939-1943 Cook. An important and fresh look at Canadians fighting on land & sea and in the air 1939-45. Evolving technology, weapons, logistics, morale, discipline, fortitude – all are covered in the fresh look at this great era. From the North Atlantic to Europe, Hong Kong, etc. Much about the Canadians who fought in the air. The first of 2 essential volumes, not to be missed. 520pp, sc, photos, biblio, index. Very nice copy but one corner very slightly bumped. $13.50 B

[] The Canadair North Star Milberry. One of the all-time best-reviewed aviation books. The world is down to a single North Star and a few lovely new copies of the book remain. Here's the low-down about this beautiful propliner in a book described as the model for airplane type histories. Canada's first airliner from conception through a colourful career. 100s of photos, glorious artwork, foldouts, app'x, index, etc. 252 pp, hc. Like new, autographed copies (2 available). Each $24.00 A

[] The Wright Brothers: Heirs to Prometheus Hallion. Invaluable 1978 Smithsonian publication, 1985 ed'n. The finest details about the brothers and their early efforts culminating at Kitty Hawk in 1903. Wonderful read + sourcebook. 146pp, sc, medium format, photos, dias, biblio, index. Nice copy. $16.50 A

[] Behind the Glory: The Plan that Won the Allied Air War Barris. Canada in the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan in WW2. Excellent history of this great enterprise, many first-hand interviews. 358pp, sc, photos, map, biblio, index. Good copy. $12.50

[] Aviation in Canada: Bombing and Coastal Operations Overseas 1939-1945 Milberry. Yet another gem of an RCAF book! All the action re. Canadians in Bomber Command, Coastal Command and on misc. similar duties. The great aircraft & squadrons. From Anson to Whitley, Beaufort, Sunderland, Lancaster, etc. Many personal profiles. A fantastic tribute to a great generation in the RCAF, exactly what CANAV's critical readers demand. Has a general autograph from 2016. Lovely copy. 272pp, 600 photos, hc, lf, photos, gloss, biblio, index. $20.00 A

[] Aviation in Canada: The Noorduyn Norseman, Vol.1 Milberry and Halliday. Here is one of the world's most in-depth airplane "bios". From early years in design to WWII. The transition to peace as the Norseman makes itself useful with bush, coast and Arctic. Writes Scale Aviation Modeller: "Packed with the kind of photographic material you won't find on the internet. ... well-researched and comprehensive". Our readers add: "I like the weaving of anecdotes with the narrative." "What airplane fan couldn't love it! I'm straining at the chocks for the next installment. An old-time northern pilot puts it this way: "The highlight of my Christmas was the arrival of your magnificent Norseman Vol. I ... I am absorbing every millimeter of it!" See our blog for more reviews General autograph from 2014. 232pp, hc, lf, 450+ photos, gloss, biblio, index. $18.50 A
